
Foreword: the infinite human resource

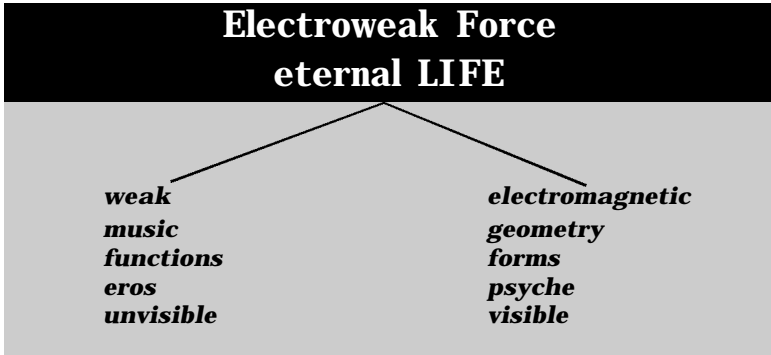

Giordano Bruno (1548-1600) was one of those great men who knew without any need for knowing; they revealed mysteries, made “miracles”, embarked on heroic ventures and defeated death. They all showed a similar wisdom, a hermetic science, that was deeper and wider than their respective times and even present ones. They also indicated the true culprit of any war, pestilence and disaster, the same which signed the event on 11th September 2001; the 18 minutes between the first and second impact, that made it such a mediatic event visible everywhere, are equal to the sum of three 6s, 6+6+6: the “beast” of Revelation (New Testament).

Who is the “beast”? “It” is not a particular man, but any man’s reptilian brain. As neurosciences now recognize, the human brain is actually composed of three brains, reptilian, limbic, and noetic which each have a specific function. The “beast” is human instinct, only able to operate in a dual mode: attack and/or defense. To maintain “itself” the “beast” always needs an “enemy” to fight against, so much as even to invent one; “it” is like a tyrannic software that has dominated men’s thought and behavior, for millennia. The “beast” always gives the responsibility of “its” own actions to someone else, such as god, natural environment, terrorism and/or even “aliens”, if terrestrial “enemies” had disappeared; “it” hates the truth which has been told time and time again by sages throughout history, since that truth would make any “enemy”, “its” own need for wars and any kind of fighting disappear like the melting of snow in the sun. Truth is oneness; human and cosmic oneness. “One only Force, Love, links infinite universes and makes them alive”, wrote Giordano Bruno; we all live into one living, loving, intelligent universe, composed of infinite worlds, sages like Bruno have always said.

GIORDANO BRUNO'S FUTURE SCIENCE

Scientists could now confirm it, if they paid attention to their own discoveries: these show the indissoluble oneness of any atom, and therefore any body composed of atoms, with the one cosmic Force which links each of them to the whole supercosmos. Physicists have recently revealed the Force, but they have christened It with a name which hides Its crucial importance for all of us; they have called It "Electroweak" and Its main trace "weak"; thus they "forget" what they themselves have calculated: the "weak" force which penetrates every atomic nucleus and therefore every body has energy billions of times higher than any other resource on the planet; it is thousands of times higher than the "strong" nuclear force. They also know that the "weak" force conducts nuclear fusion in the heart of all the stars. Weak? The "weak" force is the cosmic force that sages and poets have always sung praises to; it is the main trace of cosmic "Love which moves the sun and the stars", as Dante Alighieri (1265-1321) wrote too; it is eros, cosmic love, in my view. No scientific test can decide which name, either "weak" or eros, is the right one; whatever you call it, it is not actually "weak" and is related to stars and human health too, as a recent diagnostic technique, NMR (Nuclear Magnetic Resonance) proves.

This world is illusion, just the mirror of human beliefs and deceptive names, claimed sages who were prophets too. Scientists have only recently realized they can just observe 5% of the whole calculated mass. Sciences are therefore all based on the scanty observed 5% and are paradoxically believed as objective certainties. Religions have taken over the invisible 95% and have interpreted it in different ways, but all tending towards repressing eros and women's participation in the society, therefore a free loving sexuality and joyful Life. What is Life? Sciences and religions define It a "mystery" and claim they defend It, but they both have also offered "intelligent" weapons, means, moral rules and beliefs helpful for killing Life. The millenary, tyrannic and deceiving power of the "beast" is based on inner and outer division that doesn't actually exist; "division", i.e. dualism, is the true cause of this world which is a powder keg, divid - ed into hundreds of states, all armed against one another and divided within; “it” also tears any individual between public and private, mind and sex, political and/or religious ideas which increase his anger and convince him to kill or even to die in order to kill. Many people now use their intellect or noetic brain too, but they don’t use their limbic brain, the one which is able to feel oneness, eros, love, friendship, enjoy beauty, music, art. etc; they just use the 5% of their brain’s potentialities and of the genes of their genetic code or DNA as orthodox sciences have now recognized; therefore they are still slaves of the “beast” which owns schools, churches, media, governments, etc., pays them and only lets them transmit what is helpful for “its” own conservation.

The “beast” is triumphant, wrote Bruno in one of his books, four centuries ago; “it” still appears so, but there is great ferment in the air; the inner belief that something is deeply wrong is becoming widespread, together with evidence that it depends on us, humans. That “unexpected” event on 11th September 2001 had been foreseen by ancient and contemporary prophecies, and by dreams the world over; the “beast” actually attacked “itself”, i.e. dominant dualism, represented by the Twin Towers, in New York.

Many people are now aware that this “new” war has an old goal: western control over a fossil resource, petroleum. The key political question is energy, they say; yet it is another false question that is helpful for increasing human anger and fear. People believe what the dual “power”, the “beast”, makes them believe: resources are “objects” to possess and, in order to get them, man has to fight and take them away from another man. Nothing could be further away from the truth. No limits exist, even energetic ones.

GIORDANO BRUNO'S FUTURE SCIENCE

Every human being has infinite resources all within his body. The “weak” force appears weak to scientific instruments. Whoever loves and respects the sublime instrument his body is, can feel it as inner voice, need for contact, friendship, natural ethics, respect for the whole, oneness, consciousness that we are all part of One Organic Cosmic Being and have no need for fighting against each other.

“You will find paradise within you” wrote Bruno. The organic oneness of infinite universes is the hermetic key to recombining our own fragments, to use all our brain's faculties and talents, rediscover our true identity; we are not what churches, schools and governments make us believe we are, i.e. slaves of the “beast”, but free, responsible protagonists of this “reality”. Apart of the anger of the West added to that of the East needed to create this “new” war and huge profits for weapon manufacturers, a part of humanity now knows about the profound transformations in heaven and on earth that are not being transmitted on TV.

The war “against” terrorism will probably become worse and worse, but noone is obliged to participate in it. The true war is within; the “enemy” is the “beast's” own terror of seeing the truth, i.e. “its” responsibility for our individual and social reality; nobody can defeat the beast but every body can make “it” vanish. “Its” vanishing is what people call apocalypse, not the end of the world, but the end of the deception which has made it so tragic.

Apocalypse means revelation of the true cause, the Force which links the visible one to infinite, intelligent universes, hidden in the invisible 95%; living worlds “far” from the one we observe and participate in, but near enough to have inspired love, poetry, art, music, beauty, and the “heretical” wisdom the “beast”, the dual “power”, has always pretended to ignore; governments, churches, institutions, academies have actually concealed hermetic wisdom and worshiped a false “god”, now called TINA (There Is No Alternative).

FOREWORD

Instead there are infinite alternative worlds and chances we are being offered to be really free, to create a just world. Utopia is not impossible, but a peaceful and loving state of mind we can all live in, if we finally trust ourselves and stop being slaves of the “beast”, “its” lies and absurdities.

The “beast” is destined to disappear the moment we comprehend, forgive, and love “it”, i.e. ourselves. Love for ourselves is the “weak” infinite inner human resource that is needed for our evolution, available to everyone who truly loves life, but that no-one can possess, buy or sell.

Sages like Bruno expressed the interconnectedness of small and large, individual and collective, “terrestrials” and “aliens” too; ancient hermetic science fits in perfectly with quantum physics, that shows the main role of human consciousness, and moreover suggests how we can conquer it; it is therefore more advanced and radically different from the so called “cultures” which are now fighting against each other. Sages activated the functionality of all their three brains, i.e. their own faculties, just as we can all do now, since the “impetuous river”, cosmic LIFE, is increasing its intensity within every body, giving us the Energy we need for evolving, as they had foreseen and announced: the increasing “weak” energy awakens our subconscious memory and activates our latent faculties, i.e. lets us practice the art of memory (Chap. 3) in a easier and easier way.

Bruno’s Future Science is organic astronomy which comprehends and reveals our human origins and goal, i.e. an anthropic Universe which is destined to its protagonist: the anthropos, i.e. the human being; it reveals many “mysteries” and involves what scientists improperly called “cold nuclear fusion”, that is actually alchemy.

If you are seeking truth, you’ll be fascinated by this book, also because one of the new human beings might be you.

Love,

Giuliana Conforto

Mysteries revealed by hermetic “heretical” science:

alchemy

“aliens”

anthropic principle

astrology

Atlantis

climate change

Consciousness

cosmic rays

crop circles

global warming

Great Flood

immortality

LIFE

homeopathy

human origins

myths and legends

original sin

prophecies

resurrection

time travel

UFO

